Terms of Business (The Small Print).

We PARTICULARLY draw your attention to the BOLD PRINT

- The organisers of the event cannot be responsible for any losses made by any bootseller
- Bookings are not confirmed until funds are cleared and a receipt issued to you. Only in VERY exceptional circumstances will we accept 'Pay on the Day'.
- We hold the relevant Public Liability Insurance for the event, but it is the responsibility of each bootseller to ensure they hold any specific insurances for the wares they sell. The organisers will not take responsibility for this.
- It is the responsibility of each bootseller to ensure they comply with any legislation surrounding their wares – this to include cosmetic legislation – this is not a comprehensive list.
- Each bootseller is to be responsible for setting out their stall in a professional manner conducive to attracting custom to the event.
- Each bootseller is responsible for removal of all refuse generated by them at each event
- We will endeavour to make loading and unloading easy, but you are responsible for parking your vehicle in a suitable location
- Unless you tell us otherwise, we will use your contact details to keep you informed of other events you may be interested in.
- All bookings are considered FINAL. Refunds are not given

- The event takes place outside and is weather dependant. A decision to cancel will be made the night before so please check your emails in case of cancellation. If the event is cancelled, then a refund will be made
- Please let us know if you are not going to attend an event you have booked – we are then able to utilise your space for your colleagues rather than having an empty space.
- We really try to get as many people into the event as we can, but we cannot control this. We will not refund if you feel more people should have attended – there are just too many variables that are not in our control – the weather, timings of football matches etc.
